Dr. Bob Pearson

1989-2010 Macalester College - Head Coach Men & Women

2010-2012 University of Minnesota - Aquatics Director

2013-2016 Long Island University Post - Head Coach Women

Bob Pearson was at the helm of Macalester's Swimming and Diving program for 22 years. Under his leadership his teams demonstrated steady improvement and success. The Macalester teams recorded 168 school records while garnering 69 All-Conference and 21 All-America selections during Bob's tenure. He was a five-time MIAC Coach of the Year, and his teams achieved CSCAA All-Academic honors every year, including several top GPA recognitions within Division III.

Pearson has had a major impact on the future of college swimming. He served on the Board of Directors for the College Swimming Coaches Association of America for 25 years: 12 as the Division III Rep and 13 as the Sargent at Arms. He also served as a member of the NCAA Swimming and Diving Rules Committee (Chair from 2005-07), and is a long-time member of the Minnesota Swimming Board of Directors.

Bob hosted the NCAA Division III Swimming & Diving Championships for Men in 1999, the first combined Men's and Women's Championship in 2009 at the University of Minnesota and the Division I Men's in 2013. He has been a featured speaker at many local, regional and national coaches' clinics and swim camps.

In May 2006, Pearson was presented the Richard E. Steadman Award by the CSCAA.

Brian Bishop

1989-2018 The College of New Jersey (TCNJ) - Head Coach Men

Brian Bishop's tenure as head coach of the TCNJ Lions spans parts of four decades. Originally hired as the Aquatics Director in 1987, the Lions started a club team and asked Bishop to coach. The club turned into a Varsity program in the 1989-90 academic year with Brian at the helm and it quickly took off. Over his 29 years leading the program he amassed 232 career dual meet wins, a combined 24 MET or NJAC Team Titles and finished in the Top 20 at the NCAA Championships 23 times; seven times cracking the Top 10.

At the NCAA Championships, Bishop saw a Lion touch the wall ahead of the country six times, twice in individual events (Matt Stoll and Steve Swenson) and four times in freestyle relays, most recently the 400 Freestyle Relay that concluded the 2015 NCAA Championships. He also coached Aruba's Davy Bisslik to the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens.

Brian's accomplishments on the pool deck were recognized by TCNJ, where he twice earned the Roy Van Ness Award for his service and leadership to the College. Regionally, he was named the MET or NJAC Coach of the Year 21 times, and was also voted the Men's NCAA Division III Coach of the Year in 2015. Brian served as President of the MET Conference for six years and as Aruba's coach at their 2004 World Cup stop in Stockholm, as well as an advisor to their Olympic Committee.

Carrie Hefte

1981 Hamline University - Fergus Falls, MN

A talented Sprint and Individual Medley specialist, Carrie Hefte was an integral member of Hamline University's 1980 and 1981 AIAW National Championship teams. Winning the 50 Butterfly and 200 Individual Medley her junior year, she also captured the 50 Butterfly title as a senior in 1981. She earned 24 All-America honors in the 50 Freestyle, 50 Butterfly, 50 and 100 Backstroke and 200 Individual Medley events during her career. Carrie also anchored Hamline's 1979 AIAW National Champion 200 Freestyle Relay

Dr. David Belowich

1996-2007 Carnegie Mellon University - Head Coach Men & Women

Dave Belowich's 24-year collegiate coaching career included 11 years at Carnegie Mellon University where he was named the 2004 NCAA Division III Men's Coach of the Year following the program's third-place finish at that Championship.

As leader of the Tartans, Belowich coached six National Champions and mentored the Men's program to five consecutive Top Eight finishes on the National stage: third in 2004, fourth in 2003 and 2002, sixth in 2005, and eighth in 2001. He coached 23 men to 53 individual All-America honors and 31 relay teams (which included his son, Sean) to All-America finishes. In 2005 his Women's team placed 25th at the National meet, and during his coaching tenure six women earned 17 All-America honors across six events. Additionally, Belowich and his staff were named the University Athletic Association (UAA) Men's Coaching Staff of the Year four times.

Doug Jones

1983 Claremont-Mudd-Scripps College - Louisville, CO

Doug Jones entered Claremont McKenna College in the fall of 1981 and immediately had a major impact on the CMS swim team. He led the Division III Top Times list in several events throughout his first season, and then set three National Records at the 1982 NCAA Championship meet - while leading the Stags to a fourth place team finish. In 1983 he repeated as National Champion in three events and re-set his records in the 500 Freestyle, 100 and 200 Backstrokes as well as swimming on the record setting 400 Freestyle Relay.

Jones also won six individual SCIAC titles in Conference-record times, while contributing to the streak of 12 straight League Championships for the Stags. When Doug graduated, he held eight program records, including individual marks in the 100 and 200 Back, 100, 200, and 500 Free. He also held CMS and SCIAC records in the 400 and 800 Free relays & 400 Medley relay. He was the CMS MVP in 1983.

Michael Rawleigh

1985-2019 Gettysburg College - Head Coach Men & Women

Mike Rawleigh is the winningest coach in Gettysburg Swimming and Diving history. During his 34 year tenure, the Bullets amassed 42 Team Titles across the Centennial and Mid Atlantic Conferences, this is 25% of Gettysburg Athletics total team titles among all sports.

Gettysburg Men and Women earned 118 All-America honors, highlighted by 2 National Championship Titles by Lynne Cassidy in the 500 Freestyle in 1990 and 1991. The Gettysburg men earned Top 15 NCAA finishes four times.

Rawleigh's athletes won 334 Centennial Conference Championship Titles, and these titles and his team finishes earned Mike six Conference Coach of Year awards.

In 2020, he was inducted into the Gettysburg Hall of Athletic Honor, and he was also honored as the CSCAA Dick Steadman award recipient.

Nick Nichols

1982 St. Lawrence University - Pittsford, NY

Nick Nichols was a dominant force on an incredibly successful St. Lawrence Team in the early 1980s. Over the course of three years, Nick won five individual NCAA Titles in Backstroke and Individual Medley, four in record time, earning individual and relay All-American honors each year. In 1980 and 1982, with Nichols leading the way, the St. Lawrence Saints finished third at the Men's NCAA Division III Championships. Over the course of his collegiate career, Nichols set three individual event school records and was a part of four school relay records.

- National Titles: 1980: 100 Backstroke 52.15 record: 200 Backstroke 1:55.12 record, 200 Individual Medley 1:55.63 record/1981: 100 Backstroke 52.67/1982: 200 Individual Medley 1:55.31 record
- Other: In 1980 Nick swam a leg of their winning 400 free relay and led off the 3rd place 400 Medley Relay. In 1980 he won the 100 backstroke by over a second and a half.

Peggy Carl

1983-1990 Carleton College - Head Coach Women

1990-2008 Occidental College - Head Coach Men & Women

2008 - Present Beloit College, Salem State University, Earlham College & Mansfield University, Athletic Administrator

During her twenty-five-year tenure as a collegiate swimming coach, Peggy Carl enjoyed considerable success. She began her career in 1983 as the Head Women's Swimming Coach at Carleton College. In 1990 she assumed the role of Head Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving Coach at Occidental College and remains the winningest swimming coach in Oxy's history. Her teams were represented at the NCAA Division III Championships 20 of her 25 years, and collected 24 All-American honors including two NCAA individual Championship Titles. Carl's teams earned CSCAA All-Academic honors every year she coached. In 2008 Carl stepped down as Head's Men's and Women's Head Coach at Occidental and assumed the role of Director of Athletics at Beloit College. Since leaving the pool deck, she has held athletic administrator roles at Beloit College, Salem State University, Earlham College and Mansfield University.

Peggy has served the NCAA well over the years, including three terms of service on the NCAA Division III Swimming and Diving Championships Committee between 2001-2018 (Chair in 2003-2005). Additionally, she Co-Hosted NCAA Division III Swimming & Diving Championships in 2010 and 2011 and has served as the Co-Meet Coordinator for the past 15 years.

She was the recipient of the CSCAA Certificate of Excellence multiple times as well as receiving the CSCAA Distinguished Service Award (20 years).

Peter T.C. Smith
